Actor. Artist. Educator. Advocate.

Diversity and Equity Statement

As a teaching artist, I advocate for collaboration by embracing human connectivity, love, and acceptance. I respond to injustice through my art. And art answers the challenges of our age through diversity. When different perspectives converge, opportunities flourish. I'm intentional in condemning normative stereotypes, augmenting my approach to make learning objectives achievable for students across the spectrum of learning. Diversity and inclusivity create a safe environment for each student. Theater is the home for ensemble, community, and a sense of the whole. It is a place where everyone is free to stand in their own truth and power.
